

Judith Larkins

Artist Statement

I paint with oil and cold wax and add mix media, such as mica, marble dust, sometimes bits of paper and gold leaf on wooden panels. I create paintings using many layers, from memories or walks in the woods or glances in nature that come out on my canvas, as a surprise and delight.

Biography

Judy primarily paints from scenes in Western NC using oil and cold wax with mixed media and impressions from local hikes and walks along the parkway. Judy has painted for many years, was juried into the NC Watercolor Society, and has attended many workshops over her life-time.
