

Lori Schaffert

Loretta (Lori) recently relocated to Western North Carolina and joined its vibrant arts community. Feeling drawn to North Carolina for many years, things fell into place in the spring of 2018 and she now lives between Burnsville and Spruce Pine. Loretta enthusiastically states “I feel such positive energy here. It is leading me to more fully explore and express my creativity.”

She loves to create through pastel painting, drawing, collage and mixed media pieces, as well as beading crystal prisms and assembling found objects gifted by nature. Besides her membership in BRAG, Loretta is a member of Toe River Arts and the Appalachian Pastel Society and received an Honorable Mention on her portrait “I See the Wheels Turning “ in her first show with them in 2018. She welcomes portrait commissions, both people and their pets. Her portfolio is available to see by request. Contact Loretta at 828-208-2789 or by email at loriartist59@gmail.com
